

3. No person shall, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Commissioner, acquire any petroleum product, if by so doing the quantity thereof in his possession or under his control, exclusive of such part thereof as was acquired by him before the coming into operation of this Order, shall exceed the normal quantity required by him :

Provided that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to the acquisition in the ordinary course of his business of any petroleum product by a person carrying on the business of a dealer.

4. No person shall dispose of any petroleum product to another person if he knows, or ought reasonably to be presumed to know, that by reason of such disposal the quantity of such petroleum product which may be lawfully acquired by that other person will be exceeded.

5. I may appoint inspectors and the Commissioner of each District shall, if so required by me, appoint inspectors, to ascertain whether the provisions of this Order have been, or are being, complied with.

6. Every person shall permit any inspector appointed under the provisions of clause 5 of this Order to enter upon his premises for the purpose of carrying out any inspection or search which may be reasonably required in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Order have been, or are being, complied with.

7. Any person who acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any of the provisions of this Order, shall be liable to the penalties prescribed in Regulation 63 (1) of the Emergency Powers (Cyprus Defence) Regulations, 1939 to 1940.
