No. 535.

THE DEFENCE REGULATIONS, 1940 TO (No. 9) 1942.

ORDER MADE BY THE COMPETENT AUTHORITY UNDER REGULATION 61.

In exercise of the powers vested in me by virtue of my appointment by the Governor as the Competent Authority for the purposes of regulation 61 of the Defence Regulations, 1940 to (No. 9) 1942, I hereby order as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Defence (Control of Bakeries and Bread) Order, 1942.

2. For the purposes of this Order—

“ bakery ” means any building, room or place used for or connected with the preparation, making or baking bread for sale whether by retail or wholesale ;

“ barley flour ” means the ground products of the whole barley with not more than 18% and not less than 15% of the bran having been extracted therefrom and free from any other cereals, any foreign matter or added bran ;

“ bread ” means household bread of any size or shape or rolls of any size or shape and includes what are commonly known as koullouria or paximadia, franzola, cakes and biscuits ;

“registered baker” means any person registered as a baker under this Order and includes any person registered or deemed to be a registered baker, under the Defence (Bakery and Bread) Orders, 1942 to (No. 3) 1942 ;

“whole wheat flour” means the ground products of the whole wheat with not more than 10% and not less than 8% of the bran having been extracted therefrom and free from any other cereals, any foreign matter or added bran, and without any white flour or flour known as “semolina” having been extracted therefrom.

3. No person shall keep or work a bakery unless such person is a registered baker.

4. Any person desiring to be registered under this Order as a registered baker shall complete and deliver to the Commissioner of his district an application specifying the place at which the bakery which he intends to keep or work is situated, and if his application is granted, such person shall be registered as a registered baker and thereupon the Commissioner of the district, shall grant to such person a certificate of registration.

5.—(1) No person shall, save under the written permit of the Commissioner—

- (a) prepare, make or bake bread for sale whether by retail or wholesale, except at the bakery of a registered baker ;
- (b) prepare, make or bake bread for sale other than from an admixture of imported flour or whole wheat flour and of barley flour, in the proportions specified in sub-clause (2) of this clause ;
- (c) sell or offer for sale or expose for sale any bread, except bread prepared, made or baked from an admixture of imported flour, or whole wheat flour and of barley flour, in the proportions specified in sub-clause (2) of this clause.

(2) The admixture referred to in sub-clause (1) of this clause shall contain for every 75 okes of imported flour or whole wheat flour or of both, 17 okes of barley flour.

6.—(1) No person shall, save under the written permit of the Commissioner, have in his possession or under his control any flour other than—

- (a) imported flour ;
- (b) an admixture of whole wheat flour and barley flour which contains for every 75 okes of whole wheat flour, 17 okes of barley flour.

(2) No registered baker shall, save under the written permit of the Commissioner, keep, or allow or suffer to be kept in his bakery any bran or any flour other than—

- (a) imported flour ;
- (b) an admixture of whole wheat flour and barley flour which contains for every 75 okes of whole wheat flour 17 okes of barley flour.

7. Any permit issued under the provisions of clause 5 or 6 of this Order may contain such terms and conditions as the Commissioner issuing the same, may deem fit to impose.

8. Every registered baker shall keep in his bakery a book in which he shall enter or cause to be entered daily, particulars in respect of the number of loaves of bread prepared or made or baked in his bakery, and the quantity of imported flour or whole wheat flour and barley flour used in the preparation of such loaves.

9. No person shall—

- (a) sell or purchase, or
- (b) offer for sale or attempt to sell or purchase, or

(c) either directly or indirectly make any arrangement for the sale of, any bread in any village in the Colony except in loaves weighing—

- (ii) one oke (400 drams).

Koullouria, paximadia, cakes and biscuits are exempted from the provisions of this clause.

10. No person shall sell or offer for sale or expose for sale any bread, except bread baked prior to 6 p.m. on the preceding day.

11. Every registered baker shall permit such person as I, or the Commissioner of the district in which his bakery is situated, may authorize in writing in that behalf, to enter upon his bakery and make—

(a) such enquiries or inspection therein; and

(b) such inspection of any book kept under clause 8 of this Order, as may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Order have been or are being complied with.

12. At any time during the continuance of this Order, I may, by notification published in the Gazette, direct that bakeries in any town or village specified in the notification shall be closed on such days as may be specified in such notification or that in such towns or villages as may be specified in such notification no bread shall be prepared, made or baked on such days as may be specified therein.

13. Any bread—

(a) prepared or made or baked in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order or of any notification published under clause 12 of this Order; or

(b) sold or offered for sale or exposed for sale in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order or of any notification published under clause 12 of this Order, may be seized by such person as I, or the Commissioner of the District in which such bread is found, may authorize in writing in that behalf, and may be disposed of in such manner as I, or the said Commissioner as the case may be, may direct, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken for any such contravention.

14. Any person who—

(a) acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Order; or

(b) makes in any book kept under clause 8 of this Order any entry which is false in any material particular; or

(c) fails to comply with any term or condition contained in any permit issued under this Order; or

(d) knowingly misleads or otherwise interferes with or impedes any person exercising any powers or performing any duties under the provisions of this Order; is liable to the penalties prescribed in regulation 94 of the Defence Regulations, 1940 to (No. 9) 1942.

15. The Defence (Bakery and Bread) Orders, 1942 to (No. 3) 1942, the Defence (Bread) Order, 1939, and the Defence (Stale Bread) Order, 1941, are hereby repealed without prejudice to anything done or left undone thereunder.
