

No. 481. THE EMERGENCY POWERS (DEFENCE) ACTS, 1939 AND 1940

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE GOVERNOR.

Amd. 600/53.

C. C. WOOLLEY,
Governor.

I, the Governor, in exercise of the powers conferred by the Emergency Powers (Defence) Acts, 1939 and 1940, as extended to the Colony by the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) Order in Council, 1939, the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1940, and the Emergency Powers (Colonial Defence) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1942, do hereby make the following regulations:—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Defence (Exportation of Goods) Regulations, 1943.

(2) The Interpretation Law, 1935, shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of a Law.

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of regulation 3 of these regulations, the export from the Colony of all goods is prohibited save under the authority of a licence granted by the Controller of Supplies and subject to such terms and conditions (including the price at which such goods shall be sold abroad) as may be specified in such licence:

Provided that any licence granted under the provisions of the Export of Goods Prohibition Orders, 1941 to 1943, shall be deemed to have been issued under these regulations and the provisions of these regulations shall apply to any such licence as they apply to a licence issued under these regulations.

(2) A licence granted under the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation may be revoked by the Controller of Supplies at any time before the exportation of the goods to which it relates.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Controller of Supplies to grant a licence or by any term or condition specified in any licence or by the revocation of any licence may, within seven days from the notification of the decision of the Controller of Supplies, appeal to the Governor in Council whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

3. Nothing in regulation 2 of these regulations contained shall apply to any goods being bona fide baggage as defined in item 9 of the Second Schedule to the Customs Laws, 1936 to (No. 2) 1942, if such goods:—

- (i) are the property of a passenger; and
- (ii) are accompanied by such passenger; and
- (iii) are proved to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Customs and Inland Revenue that they are for the personal use of such passenger.

4.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in these regulations contained the following provisions shall apply to the goods and articles hereinafter mentioned:—

- (a) all goods enumerated in the Schedule hereto may be exported without a licence to destinations within the British Empire (with the exception of Hong-Kong, Sarawak and the British Pacific Islands), Palestine and Egypt;
- (b) valuables, that is to say, antiques and works of art, articles of gold and platinum, furskins and goods manufactured from furskins, jewellery, postage stamps of any country and watches with cases of precious metal may be exported without a licence to sterling area countries with the exception of Hong-Kong, Sarawak and the British Pacific Islands:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph contained shall be deemed to permit the export of diamonds of all kinds, whether or not mounted, set or strung and to articles mounted or set with diamonds without a licence.

(2) The Schedule hereto may be amended by notice published in the Gazette by direction of the Governor and upon such publication such amendment shall form part of these regulations for all purposes.
