Supplement
No. 3 : 26.11.1955
to 22.7.1958.

Interpretation.

Power to arrest without warrant.

26 of 1955
53 of 1955.

Detention of arrested persons.

Expiration of these Regulations.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Emergency Powers (Arrest and Detention) (Temporary Provisions) Regulations, 1958, and shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation 3 of the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) Regulations, 1955 to (No. 3) 1958, or any other law.

2. The Interpretation Law shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of a Law and, for the purposes of the said Law, these Regulations shall be deemed to be Laws.

3. Any Police officer or any member of Her Majesty's Naval, Military, or Air Forces, acting in the course of his duties as such, may arrest without warrant—

(a) any person in respect of whom he has reason to believe that there are grounds which would justify the making of a detention order in respect of such person under section 2 of the Detention of Persons Laws, 1955, or under Regulation 6 of the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) Regulations, 1955 to (No. 3) 1958 ;

(b) any person whom he has reasonable grounds for suspecting to have acted or be acting or be about to act in a manner prejudicial to public safety or to public order or to have committed or be committing or be about to commit an offence against the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) Regulations, 1955 to (No. 3) 1958 ;

and such Police officer or member of Her Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces may take such steps and use such force as may appear to him to be reasonably necessary for effecting such arrest.

4.—(1) Any person arrested under the provisions of Regulation 3 of these Regulations and any person who has been arrested under the provisions of Regulation 3 of the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) Regulations, 1955 to (No. 3) 1958, prior to the coming into force of these Regulations, whose further detention has not been authorised under the provisions of the proviso to paragraph (2) of Regulation 3 of the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) Regulations, 1955 to (No. 3) 1958, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the aforesaid proviso, be brought as soon as reasonably may be before :—

(a) a Naval, Military or Air Force Officer not below the rank of Lieutenant-Commander, Major or Squadron Leader ; or

(b) the police officer in charge of any police division, and such persons may, by order of such Naval, Military or Air Force Officer or of such Police officer be lodged in any place or building there to be detained for such period as may be specified in the order not exceeding twenty-eight days.

(2) Any person detained as in this Regulation provided shall be deemed to be in lawful custody during the period of such detention.

5. These Regulations shall expire two months after the date of their coming into force.

Made at Nicosia this 21st day of July, 1958.
