

5. The principal Law is hereby amended by the insertion therein immediately after section 11A (inserted by Law 31 of 1935) of the following section :—

Insertion of new section 11B in the principal Law.

“Forfeiture of equivalent number of goats or kids in certain cases.

11B. Notwithstanding anything in this Law contained, whenever any goats or kids are forfeited under the provisions of this Law and for any reason the identification of the goats or kids in respect of which the offence has been committed is not possible or practicable, there shall be forfeited instead thereof an equivalent number of goats or kids being the property of the person convicted.”

6. Sub-section (3) of section 14 of the principal Law (as set out in Law 7 of 1937) is hereby repealed and the following sub-section substituted therefor :—

Repeal of section 14 (3) of the principal Law and substitution of new sub-section.

“(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), a person upon whom a notice has been served under sub-section (1) shall not, as from the date of the service of such notice, sell, slaughter, part with or otherwise dispose of, any goat or kid, to which the notice relates, until after the expiration of ten days from the date on which he is convicted in any criminal proceedings which may be instituted against him in connection with the offence alleged in the notice.”
